

Service Level Agreement

POTS Over LTE Service

This Service Level Agreement (“SLA”) covers BCN Telecom, Inc.’s (“Company”) intended performance levels using commercially reasonable efforts for the operation and maintenance of Service (as defined below) provisioned to Customer by Company.

Definitions.

Unless otherwise defined in this SLA all capitalized terms shall have the meaning prescribed in either the Terms and Conditions found on Company’s website at www.bcntele.com or the Master Services Agreement (collectively the “Service Agreement”) as applicable to each Customer.

Mean Time to Repair (“MTTR”). Company’s mean time to repair during Company’s regular business hours and subject to the availability of repair times of Company’s underlying carriers and/or vendors during their regular business hours.

Objective(s). The target performance Company aims to achieve.

Service. POTS Over LTE Service.

Service Availability. The percentage of hours in a monthly billing cycle during which Service is available and shall be determined as follows:

$\frac{\text{Total Hours in Monthly Billing Cycle} - \text{Total Hours of Consecutive Service Disruption/}}{\text{Total Hours in Monthly Billing Cycle}}$

Service Disruption. An unscheduled period during which an affected Service at an affected location is disrupted and not usable.

First Tier Service Disruption.	A Service Disruption that entirely prevents a Customer from utilizing a Service at an affected location.
Second Tier Service Disruption.	A Service Disruption which poses substantial but not total impairment of a Customers utilization of a Service at an affected location.
Third Tier Service Disruption.	A Service Disruption which poses limited but not substantial or total impairment of a Customers utilization of a Service at an affected location.

Trouble Ticket. A documentation of Service Disruption initiated by Customer with Company’s repair department through either the Customer portal found on Company’s website at www.bcntele.com, emailing repair@bcntele.com or by calling (888) 866-7266.

Objectives.

The following are the Company’s Objectives for the Service:

Service Availability	99.00%
MTTR	8 hours

Credit.

A Service credit may be issued by Company for Service Disruptions, which are not subject to the exclusions below, that is proportionate to the Service Disruption at an affected location commencing on the later date of Customer’s proper submission of a Trouble Ticket or Customers granting to Company or its designees access to the Equipment causing the Service Disruption and ending on the date when Service is restored. Total credit in any month shall not exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the MRC for disrupted Service at an affected location. Credit, if any, will be calculated by Company for the disrupted Service at an affected location and may be up to:

POTS Over LTE Service	Credit
First Tier Service Disruption	100% per day of the pro rata daily amount of MRC of the disrupted Services lasting at least 8 consecutive hours at an affected location.
Second Tier Service Disruption	50% per day of the pro rata daily amount of MRC of the disrupted Services lasting at least 12 consecutive hours at an affected location.
Third Tier Service Disruption	No Credit.

Credits shall only apply to MRCs and shall not apply to other charges including without limitation one-time charges, including but not limited to, Special Construction Costs, 3rd party charges, taxes, fees or other charges from Regulatory Authorities. A Service Disruption and/or a failure to meet Objectives is not a default or breach of the Services Agreement. A Service Credit shall not be issued for failures to meet an Objective, including, but not limited to, MTTR.

Qualification.

In order to qualify for possible credit, a Customer must: (a) properly initiate a Trouble Ticket within twenty-four (24) hours of the Service Disruption, and (b) following restoration of Service, e-mail Company’s customer service department at customerservice@bcntele.com within fifteen (15) days requesting a credit with the Trouble Ticket number and the words “Credit Request” referenced in the subject.

Exclusions.

Credit shall not be issued for Service Disruptions due to the following:

1. Any act or omission by Customer or by a third party not affiliated with Company, including, without limitation, those parties authorized by Customer to utilize the Service;
2. A force majeure event;
3. Trouble Tickets for Service Disruptions within fifteen (15) days of the Start of Service Date;
4. Customer elects not to release or provide access to the Equipment for the disrupted Service for testing and repair;
5. Service Disruptions associated with use or incompatibility with equipment, software or other services not provided directly by Company;
6. Service Disruptions associated with Customer’s delay or failure to: (a) respond to Company’s or its designee’s requests related to repairing the disrupted Service and/or (b) allow Company or its designee access necessary to repair Equipment and/or disrupted Service;
7. Service Disruptions associated with a failure of power lasting beyond the standard battery time of the provided uninterruptible power supply;

8. Service Disruption caused or requested by Customer;
9. Service Disruptions caused by Customer's failure to authorize replacement of any element of the Services or Equipment;
10. Any inside wiring not installed by Company or its designee; and/or
11. Scheduled or emergency maintenance or implementation of Customer's order.

Limitations. This SLA does not apply to installation times or to Services not defined in this SLA. No credits under this SLA shall be issued if the Customer: (a) is in default of the Service Agreement or any documents incorporated therein, including, but not limited to, the Subscription Agreements, AUP and/or Privacy Policy, or (b) is past due on any invoices, (c) is entitled to other available credits, compensation or remedies under its Service Agreement for the same Service Disruption, or (d) Company does not find an SLA failure. All credits are exclusive of any applicable usage charges, 3rd party charges, taxes or fees for the Services. If Customer has claims for more than one Service Credit for a disrupted Service at an affected location, then it shall receive only the single highest credit with respect to the disrupted Service. Service Credits may not be carried over into subsequent billing periods and shall only apply to the invoice for the period in which it is issued, irrespective of balance. In no event shall Company's liability for losses or damages be greater than an amount equal to the sum of the payments, up to twelve (12) months, made by Customer to Company for the disrupted Services provided at each specific affected location at which losses or damages are claimed.

Use of Alternative Service. If Customer elects to use another means of communications during the period of Service Disruption, Customer must pay for the charges for the alternative service used.

Interpretation. This SLA does not supersede or replace the Service Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this SLA and the Service Agreement, the terms of the Service Agreement shall prevail. Nothing in this SLA shall provide Customer with a right to suspend or terminate Services with Company.

Modification. This SLA may be modified by Company in its sole and absolute discretion with said modifications being effective on the earlier of the date that the modifications are provided to Customer or posted on Company's website at www.bcntele.com.
